NES Service to Youth

a crystal ball

is not good enough for YOU

when you begin to

THINK

about:

- how you want to LIVE when you finish school
- what kind of WORK you would like to do
- what sort of HOME you want to have
- how much RECREATION you will be able to enjoy

YOU

and your FUTURE are IMPORTANT. You should start to PLAN NOW for the kind of life you want to LIVE

THE NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE
can HELP you

Here is how YOU can prepare now for your future:

- Stay in school and finish your education; the longer and harder you study in school the better you will be able to learn the habits and skills basic to the world of work.
- Learn all you can about the world of work; ask people about the work they do, ask about the training and abilities needed in order to earn promotion and success.
- Read books and pamphlets on careers and jobs; read biographies of successful people.
- Study Yourself, your abilities and interests; get to know what you can do and what you like to do.
- Talk to your teachers, guidance counsellors, and the NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE officer when he visits your school.
- Visit the NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT OFFICE on Careers Nights or Days.

The National Employment Service

is interested in

Special Placement Officers in your National Employment Office will be glad to help you:

- learn about the world of work
- identify your abilities and interests
- relate your talents to fields of work
- select suitable vocational training courses
- plan an occupational goal

and when the all-important day arrives, when you are ready to begin your career,

Your N E S Counsellors will:

- tell you what employers expect of you
- help you find the job best suited to You and to Your abilities and interests.

DON'T SELL YOURSELF SHORT . . . Let the N E S help You sell the BEST of
